375,973. in the U. S.

COUNT FOR YOURSELF AND PROVE IT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

FREE TICKETS TO SLAVERY.

THE CONTINUED STORY OF ABUSED AND DECRIVED ITALIAN LABORERS.

Golden Promises and Propaid Passages Tempt the Warm-Blooded Foreigners to Colder Shores-Usury in the Contracts for the Repayment of the Passage Money How the Agents Work Abroad.

Just as the Congressional Committee, which is unearthing a host of flagrant abuses of the emigrant system, whereby a flood of paupers and criminals is being poured into this country from Europe, was about resuming its inquiry at the Westminster Hotel this morning a despatch from Washington was placed in the hands of Congressman Melbourne H. Ford, the Chairman of the committee.

it announced the sudden death by accidental poisoning of Mr. Ford's only sister, Miss Esther Ford, at Lansing, Mich.

The fatality occurred on Saturday, and Mr. Ford was wired at Washington, but the despatch was not opened till to-day, when he was notified.

The committee retired to an upper room and held a consultation, finally deciding to go on with the work with Congressman Oates in the chair.

The committee decided to hear witness to-day and to-morrow, when they will probably adjourn till next Monday.

Mr. Ford leaves for Lansing to-night. The first witness of to-day was Nicola d'Aloe, another wistful, hollow-eved Italian. who said he was fifty-four years old and arrived in America on the steamer Cheribon, s tramp, from Naples in June. He was a farm hand in Italy and earned from 10 to 15 cents a day and his meals. He owned a little vineyard near Naples, worth from 400 to 500 francs, or $75 or $100.

Nicola, however, had no money when he left Italy. He came over free of passage, a man having come from Parma who said his name was Nicola Saricini. Thirteen men from Parma came with d'Aloe free of charge, and there were 850 Italians on the steamer.

Fach of the thirteen contracted in writing with witnesses to pay 250 francs each out of their wages after they got to America.

D'Aloe's wife signed the contract with her husband and Saricini has the paper. The witness left his wife and four children in Italy. He brought a letter to M. Berardini, 21 Mulberry street.

His family lived comfortably in Italy, each member working. It required four francs a day to mulatant his family, and about 60 cents a day exclusive of clothing.

Saricini told him to take no money to America, and that when he reached New York he would be set at work immediately by the man to whom the letter was addressed.

Sericini told him he would earn $1.50 a day and that thus he would be making money for him and for himself. Saricini keeps a store in Italy.

He said he had instructions from Beradini. He was a farm hand in Italy and earned in Italy.

He said he had instructions from Beradini to send him plenty of men, but Beradini's usue does not appear in the contract.

PURROY MAY HELP TAMMANY.

His Great Alm is to Down Maurice J. Power and Help Gov. Hill.

Commissioner Henry D. Purroy is expected to return to the city to-day. He will be kept very busy during the week in preparing the organization of his new local Democratic hine which is to be known as the ' Henry D. Purroy Central Democratic Association.

Local politicians are wondering what effect this organization will have and the real object Commissioner Purroy has in view. There is no doubt whatever that the Purroy organization will be got up to antagonize Police Justice Maurice J. Power and the County Democracy. This is Purroy's primary object. He will also use his new party to boom the re-nomination of Gov. Hill, and when the time comes will throw the whole influence of the organization to the support of the Tammany Hall ticket, should there be a three-cornered fight, which is very probable.

A well-known Tammany Hall chief said a three-cornered fight, which is very probable.

A well-known Tammany Hall chief said to day: "As far as I can learn, there is no understanding between Commissioner Croker and Commissioner Purroy. When they were both in Tammany Hall they were very close personal and political friends

"After Purroy's secession in 1881 they continued to be personal friends and they have always called each other "Dick" and Henry.' Purroy has never been at home in the County Democracy. Judge Power and other big chiefs of that organization have always mistrusted and suspected him. They always had an idea that he might attempt to force himself into the leadership or into the coterie that dictates things.

"Purroy got diegusted with the Counties some time ago and only waited for the proper time to break away. In my ophnion Purroy and his friends—and he has followers in every Assembly district—will form a good organization. I do not believe that they will come into the Wigwam as a body, put rather that they will set in concert with us. From what I can hear he and his friends are more anxious to down the Counties than to come into our organization as tenders.

"If Tammany Hall nominates a straight County ticket—and every Tammany. Hall leader is in favor of a fight—Purroy and his friends will help us. They expect to have a perfect organization in every Assembly district. I do not believe that Purroy has at present any ambition to jump into Tammany Hall and to become, one of our leaders. He may become one of us after election. He can be of more benefit to us as the head of a friendly outside organization."

WHEAT.—The market opened strong and active, December options opened strong and active, December options opened strong and active, december options opened stronger cables had a correst ading effect on the local market, and soon after the opening wheat was quoted at 90%.

Ottom.—Futures opened quiet but steady. Aug. wa quoted 5 potus up at 11.02. Other months unchanged. Sept., 9.76; Oct., 9.51; Nov., 9.45; Dec., 9.44; Jan., 8.49; Feb., 9.33; Marca, 8.63; April, 9.70; May, 9.70; June, 9.50. Liverpool firm but quiet.

Copper.—At the opening this morning prices had declined 10 points from Saturday's closing quotations. July was quoted at 11c.; Aug., 10.50; Sept., 9.50; Oct. and Nov., 9.50; Dec., 9.60; May and June, 9.60. Markets duil. Hamburg and Havre cables quiet.

Person sure.—Certificates conned at Saturday's PETSOLEUM.—Certificates opened at Saturday's closing quotation at 80c. Market was dull, but the quotation advanced to 80% c. Vacation Sale of Outing Clothing.

CONVICT M'CARTHY'S CASE.

Is He Innecent of the Murder of the Italian, Pasquale Levarine ?

Who killed Pasquale Lavarino, the Italian, who met his death from a stab wound Dec. 26, 1881, is a question which Gov. Hill will probably be called upon to decide. It promises to be quite as difficult of solution as that great psychological question, "The Lady or the Tiger?"

Already a jury of twelve men have said it was John J. McCarthy who began the service of a term of twelve and one-half years' sentence for manslaughter in the first degree,

Nov. 25, 1885.

John Luby, a burglar, who died in Auburn Prison in the fall of 1885, confessed on his death bed that he killed Lavarino, and Mc. Carthy now writes to his wife Agnes, who resides in East One Hundred and Twelfth street, from his cell in Clinton Prison, that Luby told the truth, that Luby was his friend and killed the man Lavarino in defense of McCarthy's life, and he (McCarthy) could do no less than return the favor by putting his life in peril to shield such a friend.

But McCarthy had made a confession, a "third degree" statement to Inspector Byrnes. The jury certainly thought it a confession, but in the light of subsequent events it can easily be seen how they may have been mistaken.

The crime was committed in 1881 and McCarthy was not arrested until Sept. 19, 1885.

The crime was committed in 1881 and Mc-Carthy was not arrested until Sept. 19, 1885. He had, on one of his sprees, which were of frequent occurrence, told a friend that he knew all about the killing of Lavarnio, which up to that time had remained a mystery. The friend "peached." McCarthy was arrested. The confession followed.

McCarthy told the Inspector that he had a quarrel with three Italians in front of 304 Mott street, and was worsted. He went to Fanning's grocery further down the street, procured a big cheese knife and returned to the fray, cutting right and left. He said that he stabbed the man who hit him before.

said that he stabbed the man who hit him before.

This was the substance of McCarthy's confession. He did not say that he stabbed Lavarino and, in fact, the post-mortem examination showed the death wound to have been inflicted by a smaller instrument than the cheese knife.

Lavarino's two companions were stabbed, and it might have teem one of Lavarinio's two companions were stabbed, and it might have been one of these whom McCarthy said he had knifed.

The dying statement of Luby was to the effect that he saw McCarthy being worsted in the fight and rushed in upin Lavarino as lie was about to stab McCarthy with his dirk.

He wrenched the knife away from the Italian and inflicted the fatal wound.

There were a number of witnesses to the affray, all young men, friends of both McCarthy and Luby, but none of them came forward to testify, the only witnesses being the two Italians who survived the affray and an Italian bootblack named Rocco, who was certain that the man who did the cutting was an Italian.

This statement sgain confuses the person who is seeking the true solution of this strange story.

who is seeking the true solution of this strange story.

Luby was light complexioned, while McCarthy was rather dark and would be more liable to be mistaken for a son of sunny Italy than Luby. This would seem to discredit Luby's death-bed confession, but he is supported by the statements of Frank Barrett, of 313 East Fourteenth street, who died last sis East Fourteenth street, who died last week.

Barrett, who was one of the witnesses of the fight, said before his death, that Luby did the killing and not McCarthy. His brother, James Barrett, who is also dead, is said to have made similar statements, and there are reported to be still other eye-witnesses of the affray, who have remained quiet all these years, but will now swear that Luby and not McCarthy was the murderer.

Honor among rogues that will go to the extant of a willingness on the part of one to sacrifice his life for another is seldom witnessed, and it is difficult to believe that McCarthy would do it.

Inspector Byrnes is investigating the story to ascertain if McCarthy is now telling the truth.

his life for a friend?

his life for a friend?

The Evenine World reporter asked this question of James McGee, who keeps the saloon at Houston and Mott streets.

'I think he would," was his answer. "He was just such a fellow. He was a quiet sort of fellow, except when drunk, and very determined. I think he'd stand by a friend to death."

FOUND WOUNDED IN A CELLAR.

Greenpoint Man in a Chrystic Street Cellar -Is He a Would-Be Suicide?

John Hanrahan, a carpenter, twenty-eigh years old, unmarried, of 292 Manhattan avenue, Greenpoint, was found this morning in the basement of Pat Hickey's saloon corner Canal and Chrystie streets, suffering with two pistol-shot wounds, which he is supposed to have inflicted with a 32-calibre revolver.

The gates of Stayvesing Fark. I do not think there will be a vote against it. It is an outrage to keep the poor people of the district out of that park after sunset."

Mayor Hewitt said to an Evening World

The balls penetrated his right breast. He was discovered by Richard Higgins, of 117 Forsyth street, who told Policeman Patrick Breen, of the Eldridge street station, who summoned an ambulance from Gouverneur Hospital.

Gouverneur Hospital.

Hansahan was conscious, but would say nothing. He is in a critical condition and may die before night.

He is well known in the vicinity where he lives. How, when or why he went into the basement where he was found has not yet been explained.

His brother, who lives at 347 Manhattan avenue, Greenpoint, called on him at the hospital, but got no information from him.

The people near Hickey's saloon professed to know nothing about Haurahan. The Cozoner will investigate the case.

JERSEY CITY NEWS.

His Hogan Wouldn't Have Taken the Jewelry Had She Known the Truth.

Miss Lydia Hagan, whose alleged engage pent with young Robert Shrimer was ended by a request from the young man for the return of the jewelry he had given her, took the articles a diamond ring and a jewelled watch, to the dealers from whom they had watch, to the dealers from whom they had been bought on the installment plan.

The girl then called on Justice Weed with letters from the dealesr, exonerating her from all blame in the matter. She told the Justice that she had never been engaged to Shrimer and had always treated him coldly.

She says he told her that the jewelry had belonged to the dead wife of a fellow-brakeman and had been bought at a bargain. She would not have accepted them, she says, if she had known the truth.

"Are new beginners on the plane liable to in-dictment? I should think they caght to be," remarked the Snake Editor.

"Why?" saked the Horse Editor,

"Hecause they treat the node increment in Shoes, Belts, Hoss, Caps, Shirts, Blances, &c. 25 per "Hecutse they sent from marked proces. Spaledy 9, 24 Broadway." such a sealy way.

CHIARA IN HER ISLAND HOME.

SHE LEAVES THE TOMBS SHORTLY AFTER NOON TO-DAY.

Mrs. Cignurale's Sickness and Sweet Smiles Saved Her from the Hangman-The Charitable Ladies Who Took Flowers to the Husband-Slaver's Cell are in Tears and Her Lover. D'Andren, is desolute.

Chiara Cignarale, beautiful and very sick, has excited that most lovely of women's traits-her charity-despite the fact that she is a murderess; that in the coolest, most heartless manner possible she shot her husband down in his tracks; followed him coolly, calmly and with steadfast purpose for several blocks and, having overtaken him. deliberately drew her revolver and took his hfe, shooting him in the back.

Chiara is a murderess, but she is weak She weeps ravishingly, and is so interest. ing! She has been the centre of a devoted coterie of ladies in her Tombs cell for many months. The barometer of the emotions of this coterie has risen or fallen as the chances for her escape from punishment for taking a human life have fluctuated.

Yesterday one of the ladies who have been onstant ministers to Chiara's wants called to see her. But Warden Osborne very sensito see her. But Warden Osborne very sensibly refused admission to her. The woman pleaded. Her pet was to go to Blackwell's Island to-day, and then she would not see her for a whole month. The Warden was inexorable, and the sympathetic lady went away with a sigh.

But she called on Deputy Sheriff Burke and offered to send her carriage to the Tombs to convey Chiara to Blackwell's Island if Burke would name the hour.

The officer said that if the carriage were there he would not reject it, and the carriage stood in waiting before the Tombs entrance all the morning.

there he would not reject it, and the carriage stood in waiting before the Tombs entrance all the morning.

Under Sheriff Sexton could not tell early this morning whether Chiara should go to her penitentiary home to-day or not, the weather was so unfavorable.

But Cignarale was awake and in readiness early. Her eyes were bright in her joy at the sparing of her life, and she smiled cheerfully at everything. She was dressed in a light wrapper, and her beautiful black hair was neatly combed.

While these preparations were going on a young, slightly built man knocked for admission at the wicket. Warden Osborne asked him whom he desired to see, and he half whispered, "Chiara Cignarali."

He was denied admission, kindly but firmly, and with keen disappointment he went away. But not far, for he took up his position on the curbstone and gazed wistfully at the arch through which enter and emerge the prisoner and the visitor to the prison.

The young man was Antonio d'Andrea, the young Italian whose intimacy with Mrs.

The young man was Antonio d'Andrea, the young Italian whose intimacy with Mrs. Cignarali led first to the breaking up of the family, and afterwards the murder of the husband.

D'Andrea, indeed, as was proven on the trial, nrged the woman, the object of his illicit love, to destroy her husband—the stumbling-block.

He was tried for murder as her accomplice, but there was insufficient evidence on which to convict him.

He has never before presumed to call upon the little woman who is to suffer a living the little woman who is to suffer a living death at his instigation. Rosa Cignarale, now a pretty girl of thir-teen years, paid a long visit to her mother vesterday.

Her childish love for her blood-stained mother is sweet. She cried for an hour with her head in her mother's lap.

By her mother's act she was deprived of her father and her home, but she is cared for. She has been with the Sisters of St. Joseph since her mother's arrest and will remain with them.

At 12.21 Chiara left the Tombs in charge of Deputy Sheriff Burke and was taken to the Panitentiary in a carriage.

At Bayonne—Benedicia, v. Baudelois, v. At Rahway—New Jersey A. C., 4; Rahway A. C., 6.

The Wiltons defeated the Lees 9 to 8. Base hits, 15; Lees, 4.

At Centreville—Robinson & Co., 17, Middlekanff Bros., 5.

The Hudsons defeated the Superiors by a score of $\fo$ to 6.

At Pamrape—Pamrape A. C., 9; Myrties, of Jersey City, 4.

The Cuban Giants will play the Excelsiors at Prince's Bay, Sonday, July 20.

OPEN STUYVESANT PARK.

The Aldermen Will Take a Hand at Their Meeting To-Morrow.

At to-morrow's meeting of the Board of Aldermen Alderman Joseph Murray will present a resolution requesting the Park Commissioners to order the keeping open of the gates of Stuyyesant Pork until 10 o'clock every evening. There is no doubt of the doption of the resolution.

Alderman Divver said to-day: "Certainly I will speak and vote in favor of the opening of the gates of Stuyvesant Park. I do not reporter:

It would not be proper for me to say in advance what action I will take should the

"It would not be proper for me to say in advance what action I will take should the Aldermen adopt the resolution.

"I have not investigated the matter. I have heard that the question of opening the gates of Stuyvesant Park was being agitated. I think, however, that the Park Commission is the proper body to decide the question.

"I would not like to tell them what they should do. Let them decide. After the advocates of the opening of the gates have exhausted their energies there, it would be time enough to come to me. I would not wish to interfere with their prerogatives. I would probably consult them if the Aldermen should adopt the resolution."

The committee appointed by the Stuyvesant Hall meeting of citizens and property owners of the Sixteenth District will call on the Park Commissioners to morrow.

The Gas Commissioners will meet in a few days, and the question of lighting up Stuyvesant Park will probably come up for action.

A High-Priced Parret.

William Mansell, of 205 West Twentieth street, was held for trial in Jefferson Market Court to-day on a charge of stealing a parrot from the boarding house of Mrs. Ada Stewart, 517 West Fortiet house of Mrs. Ada Stewart, 817 West Fortieth street.

He claimed that Mrs. Stewart owed him $2 for work. Mrs. Stewart said the parrot was worth $200 to her.

Killed ba a Fall from a Roof. .Coroner Levy was informed this morning that John Schmidt, aged forty-seven years, a German sonn commut, aged forty-seven years, a cerman miller, had accidents by fallen from the roof of the building 24w Rivington street yesterday and was instantly killed. The body was removed to 198 East Third street.

Local News Condensed.

John F. Mahrenholz celebrated his fiftieth birthday at his readence. 1153 Broadway, by inviting all his countrymen, natives of Brast, in Westphalis, to a collation and presenting them each with a photograph of simsel.

At 9.15 A. M. to-day, the body of an unknown man w.a found in the river at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street. Deceased was apparently adout sixty-five years old, and was five feet seven inches in height. The hair was light brown, the muttache mixed with grey and the eyes bine.

A REVELATION IN FIRE TRUCKS.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, JULY 30, 1888.

No. 4 Has the Longest Ever Made, Combining Water Tower and Fire-Escape. A new truck designed for Hook-and-Ladder Company No. 4 reposes in the yard at Fire Headquarters, having lately arrived from the works of the Babcock Aerial Turntable Truck Company, in Chicago. Ill.

This truck combines a fire-escape and

This truck combines a fire-escape and water tower, and enables two or three streams of water to be thrown in the lifth story windows of a burning house.

The extension ladder is the longest ever made, measuring 92 feet when extended.

In addition to the extension ladder, the truck is also provided with two 35-foot ladders, one 60-foot, one 25-foot, one 20-foot, one 15-foot, one 14-foot, one 30-foot, one 10-foot and one 16-foot ladders; also the full complement of tools, including a pair of electric-light wire cutters, with insulated handles.

electric-light wire cutters, with insulated handles.

Before the arrival of this truck Hook and Ladder Company 16 had enjoyed the honor of having the longest extension ladder, theirs measuring 85 feet.

At 3 o'clock to morrow afternoon a public exhibition of the working of the truck will be given on Union Square. Chief Catlin, of the Philadelphia Fire Department, and the Fire Commissioners from Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newark and Elizabeth, N. J., have announced their intention to be present.

Standing of the Clube This Morning.

ON THE DIAMOND FIELD.

Games Scheduled for To-Day. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Washington at New York. Indianapolis at Detroit. Pitisburg at Chicage. Philadelphia at Boston. AMERICAN ASSOCIATION St. Louis at Cleveland. Louisville at Baltimore. Kansas City vs. Athletics at Philadelphia.

AROUND THE BASES.

Stattery will join the team in Boston on Thurs-

Cas Cincinnati squeeze a game from Brooklyn th s trip? Rd Crane will pitch in one of the games against Washington. Whitney is playing as good ball as any third aseman in the League.

The Giants will win four games this week. Chalk it up. — Press. Make it six ? De Wolf Hopper now regards himself as a full-fledged mascot. He has seen the Glants win. Manager Mutrie certainly has cause to hug himself, but there is no reason for his becoming a gude. Hardle Richardson's sprained ankle is so much improved that are expects to play ball within month's time.

month's time.

Query: If his fragile freshness, the mascot, were clothed in "Nadly" tights could be, resembling a shadow, cast one?

Wanted by grand-stand girls: To know why Mickey Welch didn't show up Saturday in his "Nadly" coatume.

''There is not a ball ground in the country kept in better condition than the Arbietic Grounds."— Philadelphia Press. What's the matter with De-troit?

AMATEUR BASEBALL NOTES. At Bayonne—Benedicta, v; Bachelors, 40, At Rahway—New Jersey A. C., 4; Rahway A.

Prince's Bay, Monday, July 80. We are in want of a pitcher, shortstop and two fielders. M. Stern, 1671 Third avenue. The Young Cities would like to hear from a fair pitcher and catcher under fourteen. Call at 145 West Fifteenth street.

West Firstenth street.

The Young Oaks would like to hear from a short-stop and outfielder about sixteen years old. M.
Stein, 304 Second street.

The C. S. Glantz Baseball Club, of Hudson street, falied to meet the Bradstreet Juniors on Saturday, and the latter club claims a forfeit.

At Weehawken, the Giendales defeated the Giseys by the score of 22 to 14. The winners challenge nines under seventeen. Address Chas. W. Forster, 869 Second avenue. W. Forster, 859 Second avenue.

At Weehawken, N. J., yesterday the Weehawkens defeated the Bilver Kings (colored), of New York, by a score of 37 to 6. King Kelly was delighted and offered to back them against the Cuban Glants for any amount.

The Unity Baseball Club, of Harlem, have organized for the season and would like to hear from all amateur nines with players under twenty-one. Address J. L. Greenbaum, 382 East One Hungred and Nineteenth street. Baumann Bros. defeated the H. Bartelmes & Sen nine Saturday last at the Long Island grounds. Score, it is 3. The game was for the furniture championship of New York. Batteries—Donovac and Morague; Hammer and Buck. Umpire—Mr. Holland.

Holland.

The Manhattan Cloak Baseball Club issues a challenge to any cloak souse club in the city, and claim championehip of such until beaten. All challenges are to be addressed to Alex. Frank, care of Manhattan Cloak and Suit Company, 548 Broadway.

The Benedict Athletic Club, of Rutherford, N. J., were taken into camp by the Crescent Baseball Club, of the Ninth Ward, New York, on Saturday, by $100. The features of the game were the battery work of Gorman, nicher, who was ably supported by Todd and Ouhlson, of the Crescents.

The Standard Baseball Club, of Hariem, defeated. The Standard Baseball Club, of Hariem, defeated the Lushers at Westchester, 21 to 11. The features of the game; were J. Orell's, Daley's, and Quinn's home run. The Youatans challenge has been socepted. For arrangements address J. Henschel, 256 East One Hundred and Twentieth street.

Will Hang if Monahan Dies. Frank Mori, of 217 Mulberry street, who fra tured Fatrick Monahan's skull with a bottle during a brawl at 51 Crosby street, was held in the Tomb Police Court this morning to swait the result of Monahan's injuries. The latter is in Believue, in a critical condition. He lives at 272 East Twenty-first street. tured Patrick Monahan's skull with a bottle during

The Abeurn Association

The fourteenth annual excursion of the John F Ahearn Association started off to-day, A steam-boat and four barges coveyed 4,000 happy folks from the Seventh Ward to Orchard Grove. Mr. Ahearn did everything in his power to make the party comfortable. The Little Seed.

A little seed lay in the carter's path; A little shoot bowed in the strong wind's wrath; A little shrub grew, by its roots seld fast; Then a stout free braved all the winter's blast. A little cough started—'twas only light; A little chill slivered the hours or night; A little pain came and began to grow, Then consumption laid all his brave strength low. Be wise in time. Check the little cough, cure the little chill, dispel the little pain, ere the little ail-

BROADWAY BUILDING SUBJECTED TO MOST MYSTERIOUS ATTACKS.

Burglars Get Little Plunder There This Morning, but Monut to Start a Big Blaze-The Doors Were Left Locked Last Night and Were Found Still Locked

The three story brick building 309 Broad way is owned by the heirs of the Weld estate, who live in Boston. The ground floor is occupied by Holz's restaurant. Holz & Freyto destroy the property having been discov-

He found all the offices locked and every thing apparently secure. Then he left the building, after seeing the street hall-door secured by a Yale padlock.

Witte, a cutlery dealer, who has rooms on the third floor, found the lower hall door locked as usual.

rivate office.
Upon further investigation he found under

it. The office door had been opened by ning an iron staple.

When Mr. Freeman arrived he found that the thieves and incendiaries had also entered his office. One of the panes of glass in the door had been removed and the putty was carefully laid on the floor inside the office.

Only a few postage-stamps were missing.
There were valuable articles in the office which were not taken, such as plated silver-ware and vases, upon which money could be entrance to Freeman's office.

B. H. Baldwin, a manufacturer of indelible ink, has a salesroom on the same Detective Doberty Was Beaten with a Mallet and Saloon-Keeper Pfeisterer Was Cut. There were forty-three cases of violation of the Excise law at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning. Philip Pfeisterer. who keeps a saloon and boarding-house at jelly, necessitating amputation.

Three doctors were called to the steamboat wharf and they ordered her removal to the Rhode Island Hospital. A fatal result is 205 Eighth avenue, was one of them. He said that at 10 o'clock, when his board ers were scated at supper, Officers Friel and Vallely, of the Sixteenth Precinct, rapped at Vailely, of the Sixteenth Precinct, rapped at the door, but found it locked. They then rang the bell, and he went to the door. He told the man that his place was closed and they were doing no business there.

Officer Friel pushed against him, caught him by the throat and pushed him against the wall, all the while trying to get him outside the door. In the rough-and-tumble effort to arrest him, the officer cut his, Pfeisterer's, right hand.

The two officers rushed Pfeisterer to the station-house and locked him up for keeping his saloon open.

station-house and locked him up for keeping his saloon open.

When Justice Ford heard the facts this morning in the Jefferson Market Court he paroled him for examination this afternoon. Several of the bearders will appear as witnesses.

Detective Doherty of the same district had Detective Deherty of the same district had a lively experience in Clay's salcon, 441 West Twenty-sixth street. He entered the place late last night and found a company of seven men and two women all drinking beer at a table. Mrs. Clay, wife of the proprietor, was serving them at the bar.

Deherty announced who he was; went to arrest the female bar-tender. The lights were turned out and the door made fast. Those in the salcon then attacked the Detective; they beat him with a mallet and threw glasses at him.

at him.

He got to the door, upon which he kicked and banged to attract the officer on post. Policeman Vallely came to his assistance. The gas was turned on and the proprietor's son, Peter Clay, was arrested. He is bar-

John Henrihan, twenty-eight years of age, who lived in a furnished rom on Jackson street, entered the saloon at Chrystin and Canal streets at 5.30 o'clock this morning, and, going to the cellar, Shot Himself Among Whiskey Barrels.

Said a Policeman Hurt His Sc

Gen. Sherldan's Condition.

Fragrant Vanity Fair Cigarettes

FIRE STARTED FOUR TIMES.

sted rent the entire building and sublet the upper floors for offices. Within the past year there have been four attempts to burn the building, the last plot ered this morning.

On Saturday evening H. A. Freeman, of the Paisley Improvement Company, occupying an office on the second floor, went through the two upper halls and tried all the doors, as he has been accustomed to do every evening during the past few months, by request of the tenants

This morning a boy employed by Alexis locked as usual.

Lawyer Van Hovenburg, of J. H. Thome's office, arrived a few minutes later and entered the law office. He was surprised to find the half dozen chairs stacked up in Mr. Thome's the chairs a creton curtain, taken from one of the windows, with a quantity of waste paper and a wax candle.

The candle had been lighted, but was not burning when Mr. Van Hovenburg discovered it. The office door had been opened by filing an iron staple.

Obtained.

Davis, Grant & Co., dealers in art novel-ties, occupy a salesroom adjoining Mr. Free-man's office. The thieves entered this room in the same manner that they effected their ink, has a -alestoom on the same floor; which was not entered, nor were the rooms of Ash-wold & Co., bankers and brokers, on the sec-was not emered, nor were the rooms of Ashwold & Co., bankers and brokers, on the second floor.

It is the general impression among the tenant: that the thieves had keys to the doors of the Paisley Improvement Company's office and to Davis, Grant & Co.'s salesroom, and that they removed the glass to give the impression that they entered in that way.

The building was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars on May 13, 1888, when a fire was started in the hall on the second floor by lighting a pile of excelsior.

Like two previous attempts to burn the building, this resulted in no damage.

The tenants are considerably alarmed, and have to pay high rates of insurance.

Detectives will endeavor to solve the mystery by bringing the burglarious incendiaries to time.

LIVELY EXCISE ARRESTS.

son, Peter Clay, was arrested. He is bar-tender in the place.

The wife could not be found. Justice Ford held the son in $300 bail for trial.

occock this moraling, and, going to he center, crouched beneath some whiskey barrels and shot himself in the right breast with an old and rusty pistol of 38-calibre. He was removed to Gouverneur Hospits. Henrihan was formerly an expressman but sold out his business a month sgo.

Saloon-keeper Charles Kampler, of 24 Pitt street was arraigned at the Essex Market Court the morning on a charge of having done business yes-terday. reday.

Policeman Wohlfarth, of the Union Market station, said he found men drinking in the place. Kampier said his son Louis, eighteen years old, entered the saloon to get a deek of cards, and the policeman forced his way in, and in so doing pushed Louis, who fell and broke his left lieg.

Justice Gorman held the father for trial.

NEW BEDFORD, July 20 .- Gen. Sheridan's condiion is unchanged.

PAT FARLEY IN A BAD FIX THE EX-ALDERMAN CHARGED WITH COM-

We're Plenty of Room for Honest Working men, but None for the Refuse of Europe.

EMPEROR WILLIAM IN DRNMARK.

King Christian Gives the Kalser a Warn

Welcoure to Conenhagen.

FRY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.)
COPENHAGEN, July 30.—The Danish squad

on met the German fleet at 9 o'clock this

King Christian and the Crown Prince went on board the Hohenzollern and were received

The King gave the Kaiser and Prince Henry

The Hohenzollern then put straight for

The entire population was out upon the quays and housetops and there was great

The Imperial and Royal Majesties and Highnesses then proceeded through immense crowds lining the streets to the palace.

Congratulations from the Pope

(BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.)

and has received one in response from the Emperor thanking him for this new testi-

To Search for Explorer Stanley.

IBT CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.

LONDON, July 30.—The mail steamer from the Congo brings news from Major Barttelot to April 15. The Major had heard nothing or Stanley, but was preparing to leave the Zambuya camp to go in search of him. HER LEG CAUGHT IN A ROPE.

Shocking Accident on a Providence Steam-

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

PROVIDENCE, July 30.—Saturday night the Gibbs tore down his license from the pilot-nd becoming taut the limb was crushed to

DEAN Willis, Or lais First avoide;

DEAN Sin: My husband, Julius Willis, was brought home from the Insane Asylum on Ward's called the History and I believe that his death was caused by the brutal treatment of the keepers, and I ask and demand that a post-morrem examination to made so that I may know the cause of his death before he is buried.

ELIZABETH WILLIS.

Lawyer O'Dwyer said there many bruises on the man's body which bore out the wife's suspicions, and urged that a rigid investigasuspicions, and urged that a rigid investiga-tion be made.

The funeral was fixed for 1 o'clock this af-ternoon and Undertaker Shafer was already at the house.

Coroner Levy, however, issued an order stopping the funeral and said he would begin the investigation without delay.

Deputy Coroner Jenkins will make an autopsy this afternoon.

One Year of High Liceuse in Pounsylvania

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
PITTSEURG, July 30.—Statistics from all counties in Pennsylvania show that in one year's operation or the High License law the number of Hoenses were reduced from 14,555 to 7,724, and the revenue increased from $976,879 to $1,835,963.

Fatally Wounded in a Brawl.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
AVER, Mass., July 30. — During a drunken brawl

in Pepperell yesterday afternoon Ed Humphrey fired three shots at and probably fatally wounded Tom Tierney.

Barns Burned at New Canaga.

barns at New Canaan were burned yesterday. Loss, $18,000; insurance, $18,000.

[special to the Evenino world.] Norwalk, Coun., July 80.—Stephen B. Hoyve was injured.

Rome, July 30.—The Pope has sent a telegram of congratulation to Emperor William on his occasion of the birth of the fifth son.

with a hearty greeting by the Emperor.

most cordial welcome to Denmark.

this city and all landed at 11.30.

monial of his friendship.

morning.

cheering.

Charles Reggenberg, the Victim, Swears On a Criminal Warrant for Farley's Arreste and Pays He Will Bring Civil Action Also—The Story of Truck-Driver Gilrey,

Who Saw the Whole Affair. The Eldridge street police are in a state of mind because they are accused of being in collusion with ex-Boodle Alderman Pat Farley, and of protecting him from the consequences of his misdeeds. The accusation has its origin in the fact that the police failed to arrest the ex-Alder-man for a brutal assault which he is said to have committed upon a young man in his saloon, at the Bowery and Grand street, late ast Saturday night. The victim was Charles Reggenberg, a truck driver, who lived at 164 Leonard street. The story goes that Reggenberg was found by Farley asleep in one of the closets of the salbon downstairs, and that thereupon, without any provocation, the ex-Alderman fell upon his sleeping victim and beat him terribly about the head with some sharp instrument and then caused him to be thrown out upon the sidewalk, where he was found in ment and then caused him to be thrown out upon the sidewalk, where he was found in an unconscious condition by Policeman Ryan and taken to the Eldridge street station.

MITTING AN OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT.

Reggenberg was in such a dazed condition from the beating he had received, that he was able to give no account of the assault. His head was bleeding terribly from the gaping wounds in the scalp, and it was feared that his skull had been fractured. When the ambulance surgeon had dressed the wound. Reggenberg declined to make any complaint, for some inexplicable reason, although an unknown friend, who had witnessed the assault. He had gone away, however, without giving his name.

It was said that Farley, who made his appearance shortly after at the station-house, had been arrested on this complaint, but the police say that this is not so. He came there, they allege, of his own accord because he had heard that some one had accused him of assaulting a man in his own saloon and he wished to deny it.

He declared that the barkeeper in his place had "fired out" a drunken man a short time previous, but that no one had been assaulted there.

On these statements and the fact that no complainant appeared. Sergt. Creed mays that the police to do decided nothing more in the matter.

It appears to be much more serious, however, for ex-Alderman Farley than he at first imagined, for Reggenberger is determined to have vengeance for the beating which he received.

While he was lying suffering at his home have vengeance for the beating which he received.

While he was lying suffering at his home yesterday he was visited by the witness, who first notified the police of the outrage, who offered to do anything in his power to help him if he desired to make a complaint against Farley. He is Michael J. Gilroy, a truck driver of the American News Company.

"The assault was the most brutal outrage I ever witnessed," said Mr. Gilroy to an Evening World Proporter this morning, "and it was committed by ex-Alderman Farley himself, I went into the saloon at about 11.50 on Saturday night and just as I got in I saw Farley going down the stairs. He was in his shirt sleeves and had a plug hat on. I followed him down and saw him go straight to the closet where Reggenberg was saleep.

"Come, get out of this," he said. Captain and the crew of the steamer What Cheer, of the Continental Steamboat Line. struck against increased hours of work. Capt.

house, and a green crew, with a harbor pilothouse, and a green crew, with a harbor pilot in command, were put in their places.
At 12 o'clock yesterday, as the What Cheer was leaving the dock with a big crowd of excursionists, the new hands failed to respond to orders. A hawser became encircled about the left leg of Mrs. Annie Montgomery, who was sitting abaft the wheel-house, to the closet where Reggenberg was asleep.

'Come, get out of this,' he said.

'Reggenberg did not appear to hear him.
The next thing I heard was 'whack! whack! bang!' and Reggenberg rolled out on the floor with a groan. the blood spurting from the back of his head. Farley had something in his hand that looked like a 'blackjack.' I saw him put it in his pocket.

'I ran upstairs and went to the station to make a complaint. Before I went I heard Farley tell his barkeeper to go downstairs and get the man out of the place. The officer brought Reggenberg in while I was at the station. He was hardly conscious then and was an awful sight to behold.

'While he was in the back room getting his head sewed up Farley came in with an officer, and I thought he had been arrested. He asked to see the man who said he had hit Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of A suit for heavy damages will be at once A suit for heavy damages will be at once instituted against the company. Witnesses of the shocking accident were of the opinion that the crew were criminally negligent and carolesa. Only twenty four hours before a dock hand in the employ of the company had a foot crushed in an entangled rope.

About the same time the steamer Philade phia, of the same line plunged into the Pawtucket excursion steamer Peerlesa, smashing in her rear guards. Both boats were crowded with passengers, but no one was injured.

Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of

DID THE KEEPERS BEAT HIM?

Mrs. Willis Wants Her Husband's Death at Ward's Island Investigated.

Coroner Levy was notified this morning of a mysterious death in the City Asylum for the Insane on Ward's Island, which it is claimed is the result of foul play by the keepers.

The case was reported by Lawyer W. H. O'Dwyer, of 261 Broadway, who brought the following letter from his client, Mrs. Elizabeth Willis, of 1212 First avonue:

The the Coroner.

Dear Ross: My husband, Julius Willis, was brought heme from the Insane Asylum on Ward's ceeding may be.

Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of him.

"He called me an 'infamous liar,' but he couldn't took me in the eye and say he didn't do it, for I saw him strike the man as plainly as I see you now."

Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of him.

"He called me an 'infamous liar,' but he couldn't took me in the eye and say he didn't do it, for I saw him strike the man as plainly as I see you now."

Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of him.

"He called me an 'infamous liar,' but he couldn't took me in the eye and say he didn't do it, for I saw him strike the man as plainly as I see you now."

Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of him.

"He called me an 'infamous liar,' but he couldn't took me in the eye and say he didn't do it, for I saw him strike the man as plainly as I see you now."

Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of him.

"He called me an 'infamous liar,' but he couldn't look me in the eye and say he didn't do it, for I saw him strike the man as plainly as I see you now."

Reggenberg and I stepped out in front of him.

ceeding may be.

He is a -young man of respectable family and his mother owns considerable property in the Sixth Ward. Has the Mill Been Destroyed?

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 30.—A special from Pittsheld states that the large paper mill of John De Varnennes at East Lee, was on fire at 10 o'clock last evening, and is supposed to have burned to the ground.

The fire department of Lee was called and responded. Communication by telegraph and telephone was cut off and no further particulars are obtainable. The mill employed 150 hands, was a large wooden structure, well slocked at present and thoroughly equipped. The loss will be about $100,000 if the destruction is complete.

Local Rain, Then Pair.

Washington, July 30. -For Connecticut and

Kastern New York—
Fair, preceded by localrains on the coast;
slightly tearmer, fol.
to we d Tuesday by stationary temperature, cartable winds. For Connecticut and

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-incrmos